"Dear Mr. Eichenseer,

Hello. Firstly, please let me apologize for writing this email in English. I do not speak German. However I am very interested in speaking with you about your work at the Franz Xaver Von Schonwerth society. I am writing from a documentary film company in London, and we are very interested in the work of Mr. Von Schonwerth. Do you speak english? Or perhaps one of your colleagues? If so, I would be really interested to speak on the phone with you about the work you do at the society, and the work of Mr. Von Schonwerth. We are currently in touch with ARTE channel and would like to propose a series to them about Mr. Von Schonwerth.

Please email me back if you are able to speak with me on the phone, or suggest somebody else I might speak to.

Many thanks,

Katie Boxer"
